Over 17,000,000 Bushels of Coal Locked Through During Month

During January 17,067,000 bushels of coal were shipped down the Monongahela river. This amount compares favorably with all months of 1910, and surpasses all monthly shipments but five. December's shipments totaled 12,716,000 bushels. Besides the coal 1,200 tons of wire and nails went through the lock.

Lockages down stream were 665. There were 345 steamers and 1,441 boats barges and flats passed down. Up stream there were 661 lockages. Steamers locked up stream numbered 345 and boats, barges and flats were 1,426

SCRAP BOX FALLS ON YOUNG MAN

Narrow Escape for Foreman at Monessen Mill.

IS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Ralph Clegg, about 22 years old, of Belle Vernon, is recovering at the Allegheny-General hospital from injuries received at the Monessen Tin Plate mill Wednesday night.

Clegg was foreman of the shear work. He was at work invoicing and was directly under a box of scrap being moved by a crane, when the chain holding the box broke and the scrap fell. Clegg was almost completely covered by the scrap and it required some time before he could be extricated from the position by fellow workmen. It was thought that he would be horribly mangled and dead, but instead it was found that his chief injuries consisted of a broken collar bone and several cuts. It was feared that he had sustained internal injuries, and he was taken to the Allegheny-General hospital for treatment.

COMMITTES OF BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION MAKE START ON IMPORTANT WORK

Free Bridge Movement Receives Incentive at Regular Monthly Meeting Held Last Night---Committee Reports That Petitions are Drawn up Ready for Circulation Among Interested Citizens of Two Counties.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS PUBLICATION OF BOOKLET SHOWING FORTH LOCAL ADVANTAGES

Reports of three important committees and the election of officers, the introduction of an important resolution concerning health regulations and a Carnegie Library proposition furnished an interesting and busy session of the Charleroi Business Men's Association last night. Committees making reports were the committee on the matter of a proposed free bridge between Charleroi and Monessen, a publicity committee, and a committee on the proposed extension of a trolley line to Bentleyville. Dr J. W. Hunter introduced a resolution to petition Congress to establish a National Bureau of Health. Secretary M. Adams read his annual report.

Hugh E. Fergus Esq., chairman of the bridge committee, said that petitions had been prepared for circulation among residents of both Westmoreland and Washington counties. He said that it would take some money to push the project, approximately $500, judging by the amount required by the citizens of Belle Vernon in securing their free bridge. The committee was instructed to confer with the Monessen Board of Trade, and after that the proposition will in all probability again be taken up.

Reports of work done by the publicity committee were made by Jesse Johnston and E. C. Niver Recommendations were made that a four page leaflet of Charleroi showing the exceptional industrial and civic advantages be prepared together with an advertising envelope. This met with favor and the committee was instructed to go ahead with the work.

President John H. Bowers of a committee to look after the matter of getting a trolley line to Bentleyville, reported progress. A committee on a good road to Bentleyville was not ready to report.

JOHN B. SCHAFER,
New President Business Men's Association.

Dr. J. W Hunter's resolution which was adopted was to ask Congress to create a National Bureau of Health as a cabinet office. Health work as carried on in Pennsylvania and other states was explained by Dr. Hunter, Dr. H. J. Repman. It was decided to send the resolution to the National Committee of 100 at Washington.

A communication was received from Mary E. Jones of Braddock relative to establishing a Carnegie library. She stated that the plan of Mr Carnegie's donations for libraries was that he would put up the building on a site to be furnished by the town. The town would have to make a 10 per cent appropriation to equip it. This matter was laid on the table.

Secretary Adams reported that there had been 35 new members received since the name of the association was changed on May 19, and that now the total membership was 98. Among the other things he mentioned in his report was the Business Men's picnic and the banquet held December 1 where work now being done for

That is the verdict of Governor Tener in regard to the proposed vacation on the part of some of the Legislators for the purpose of framing up legislation, even although not exactly expressed in those words. Consequently the Representatives will continue to saw wood. Affairs are getting down to the actual grind now, and steady work will be the order of the day, even if not much is accomplished "Uncle Banks" Holland is one of the busiest men on the job. He comes to the front with another bill that will be of benefit to Washington county, as well as to all others outside of those containing large cities. This is to permit counties to erect and maintain jointly workhouses for prisoners. The plan has been long advocated for this county.

Charlie Bentley of Monongahela, who is up on railroad matter, has introduced a bill to compel suburban electric lines to provide waiting stations, and to equip them with toilet rooms. This is a measure that will be appreciated by the suburbanites along the Pittsburg and Charleroi trolley line.

Representative Woodward of Allegheny has introduced a bill to increase the salary of the Governor's private secretary from $2,500 to $5,000. The latter is Walter H. Gaither, well known in Charleroi who was Governor Tener's secretary while the latter was in Congress

Interesting Reading

In this issue of the Mail is published County Controller John H. Moffitt's first annual report. It is an important document to the taxpayers of the county, as is shown clearly and concisely just how the money was expended in providing for the public expenses of the county. While much shorter and greatly condensed, the report is more comprehensive to the average reader than the mass of figures which formerly constituted the county auditors' report. This latter was so voluminous as to be misleading.

By this report it is shown that the expenses of the county last year were $604,065.97, while the receipts were $646,510. This leaves a comfortable balance of receipts over expenditures. The county has a general cash balance, however, of $304,917.66. This is unexpended funds for the various departments, roads, bridges, etc. The statement is interesting reading, as the various items are so clearly set forth that the cost of the different department relating to the conduct of county affairs is readily understood.

Valuable Information

Word comes from Monessen that a party of interested citizens, chiefly members of the Board of Trade of the hustling stee' town across the river, proposes to visit the exhibition of the good roads train at Monongahela tomorrow at 1:15 in the afternoon. This train is well equipped for educational purposes under the auspices of the United States Department of Agriculture, the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, State College, and the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The latest and most approved methods of road making and repairing are illustrated and explained as well as simple devices for improvement of highways. This will afford a most interesting exhibit for those interested in good roads, and will give them information that will be valuable in any good roads movement that may be undertaken in this community

Charleroi should also send a delegation to attend this exhibit. It would be in order for as many of the local Business Men's Association as is possible to arrange to visit this exhibition at either Monongahela or California. The Monessen delegation suggests that a Charleroi delegation join in the excursion. Monessen people are making a hot fight for both county and State improvement of highways in and out of their town, and the Board of Trade is taking advantage of every opportunity to get information regarding the subject. Road making is a most important economic subject, and all that can be done to promote it or arouse public interest is time and effort well spent.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Few people are aware of the resources and utility of the West Penn Electric company," said District Manager D. H. Johnson, recently. "While we of course advertise that we furnish light and power, the general impression is that dispensing light is our principal function. This is a mistake. Power is also a big asset with us. In addition to furnishing the motive power for numerous street car lines we supply many of the big manufacturers, as well as a multitude of small ones. Why, not so very long ago one of the big engines at the Pittsburg Plate Glass works broke down. To have installed another would have involved much delay and time to the plant. They came to us, and in two days we had a large motor in and running, and the plant is now using the motor in the place of the engine. You'd be surprised at the general use of small motors for running light machinery. These are increasing right along.

John B. Schafer, the newly elected president of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, told a good story last night to illustrate the fate of the shirker, when called upon for a speech, after he had been declared elected.

The story was a fable of a farmer who used a mule and a cow harnessed together in ploughing his fields. After the first day's work the cow simulated sickness to avoid the yoke. The consequence was that the mule did the work alone, and the cow would ask her companion how he got along, and gloat over the deception. One evening the mule in reply to the usual question stated that he had been called upon to do some extra work.

"What was that" asked the cow.

"Oh," replied the mule, "after the ploughing was done the master drove me down to the slaughter house."

Mr. Schafer used this story to illustrate a point in making an appeal for the co operation of the members of the association during the coming year in working for advancing the interests of Charleroi

H. A. Kauffle, the efficient Charleroi Western Union telegraph operator, is a placid, mild mannered man, but he sometimes cracks a joke when it is least expected. The big electric clock in the local telegraph office, which is regulated every day at noon from Washington, D.C., is the official regulator for all the watches and clocks in the community, and in addition to obligingly giving the time over the 'phone to numerous calls every day Mr. Kauffle receives dozens of people who drop into the office to set their watches to see what time it is. The other day a young lady dropped into the office and studied the clock intently.

"The clock isn't going," said Mr. Kauffle.

"Not going?" repeated the young lady, it seems to be."

"No, the clock isn't going; it's just hanging on the wall."

Incidentally it might be stated that every clock in Western Union offices is regulated and accurately set at noon every day from the Master Clock of the company at Washington, D C. If you should happen to be in the local Western Union telegraph office at about noon, at exactly two minutes to 12 you will hear some long drawn out ticks over the wire, with some pauses between. Then, after an interval, there will be a final tick, and it is noon. If the clock is not exactly on the second, it is regulated to the correct time, and does business for another 24 hours.

The local clock, which is run by electricity, can also be connected with other clocks of a similar nature about town, and will regulate them automatically. Jewelers get this service for which they have to pay a monthly rate to the Western Union company. That's what regulates the time wherever the big telegraph company has service, and for which every wire is cleared at noon each day.

AN INTERESTING DEMONSTRATION

The Mann Street And Station Indicator Attracting Numerous People

For several weeks a very interesting demonstration has been going on in the offices, second floor of the Charleroi Mail building. The demonstration is of a machine that is installed in street cars and automatically announces the streets and stations in print. When the car leaves one stop the machine will indicate the next. The indicator on exhibition here is installed in a minature car, which moves back and forth and operates under actual commercial conditions. When the car has reached the end of the run an automatic switch reverses the direction of the tape upon which the names of the streets appear.

The passengers on the street car in the future need have no nervous spasms for fear of being carried past their destination and having to walk back several blocks. Every person who has been in strange cities knows well the anxiety of depending upon a conductor to call out the names of the stops along the route. With the Mann Street Indicator all this trouble is past, and you can ride without any tremors, for the Indicator is placed in full view of every person in the car.

The representatives of the Mann Indicator company have been working away quietly for some time and have interested many of the business and professional men of Charleroi. They state that the Indicator is in operation on the Stark Electric system at Alliance, Ohio, where the company's factory is located. They also state that within a short time thousands of the machines will be in operation all over the country, and without a doubt this is true, for the Mann Indicator company does not charge the street car companies one cent: the machines are installed free.

The men who have charge here are R. M. Smith and P. M. Asmus who extend a cordial invitation to the public to call and see this wonderful invention.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of the great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy; they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Carroll Drug Store, 623 Fallowfield avenue.

REV. J. W. HEAZELTON PREACHES SOUND LOGIC

Rev. J. W. Heazleton of Belle Vernon preached in the M. E. church last night to a splendid audience. He took for his text John 3:16. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believe in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

"This" the speaker said "was an inexhaustible text. The costliest thing in the world is sin. God was not a God of wrath but of love. His love was not temporary but eternal. Love was deep seated in the very nature of the Divine Being. However God's love was not a mere emotion, an effieminate thing. His love and his justice were in perfect harmony. This was seen in the gift of His son as the propitiation for our sins."

The service this evening will be held in the large auditorium and the pastor will speak on "Lost Boys," the sermon being especially for young people

On Sunday there will be a special service for men at 3 o'clock when the pastor will speak on "The best business in the World." Business men are especially welcome to this service.

CAIRNES ANNOUNCS FOR COMMISSIONER

Burgess of Roscoe Out for County Office at Coming Election

John J. Cairns, the present burgess of Roscoe, has entered the race on the Republican ticket for nomination for county commissioner at the June primary. So many friends and staunch supporters have urged him to take this step, that after thinking the matter over for some time, he finally announced his intention to become a candidate.

Mr Cairnes is well qualified for the position, although never having come out for a county office before. He has held several offices in the borough of Roscoe Being a mine foreman in the employ of the Vesta Coal company at California he has been an active factor in the mining industry for a number of years. He is alert to the interests of the coal miners, and has taken an active part in mining institutes and other progressive steps for the betterment of their condition and for their safety in the mines. He possesses the ability for cool judgement and keen insight He is a ready talker, and is thorough conversant with conditions as they exist in this county. In the commissioners office there is no doubt but that he would exercise the same careful tactics that has made him successful in his own line of business

John J. Cairns has the confidence of a host of people in the valley, and would undoubtedly command their support. Not only this, but he is well and favorably known throughout the county, and while he realizes that he is entering a contest which will require hard work to win, he fully expects to overcome the heavy odds by clean methods and honest dealing with all whom he may come in contact.

State of Pennsylvania,
County of Washington.

Personally appeared, John H. Moffitt, Controller of Washington County, State of Pennsylvania, who being duly sworn according to law, deposed and said that the above statement submitted herewith is correct and true and is a true transcript of the books and records kept in the County Controller's office.

JOHN H. MOFFITT,
County Controller.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 30th day of Jan., A. D. 1911.

DAVID L. WILLIAMS,
Clerk of Courts.

A Seal's Curious Origin.

The discovery of the famous Woodhall spa in Lincolnshire was very curious. Just about a hundred years ago a shaft was sunk in search of coal, but the effort had to be abandoned owing to a rush of water. In time the water found its way into a small brook, and in due course the inhabitants began to speak of the curative powers of the stream. Science investigated the mystery and discovered that the water in the coalless shaft was richly impregnated with various salts and bromine and iodine. Geologists expressed the interesting opinion that ages ago the place was the sandy bed of a shallow lagoon or bay of a tropical sea where seaweeds of great growth abounded. A mighty convulsion of nature lowered the sea bed, a great river flowed over the place, and in time its debris was formed into a mass of spongy rock or sandstone. Forcing itself through this mass at great pressure some 600 feet below the ground, the water now extracts the constituents of the original seaweed.—London Family Herald.

The Toad's Tongue.

The skillful manner in which a pet toad used its wonderfully formed tongue entitled it to be ranked as an expert. For one thing, it showed wonderful skill in judging distances. The tongue was never darted out until the insect came within a certain range. The accuracy of the creature's aim was another matter for surprise. The insects were generally in motion when the tongue was darted out against them, but the arrow never failed to hit. The rapidity with which the tongue was shot forth excited much wonder. The operation is a complex one. The tongue is doubled or folded up when in the mouth. Therefore a twofold action is required, an uncoiling of the weapon and then the darting of it forth. The withdrawing of the tongue with the captured insect on the tip was not less remarkable. Notwithstanding the rapid motion, the fineness of the tongue tip and the struggles of the prey the victim was never dropped.—Exchange.

LOCAL MENTION

Interesting News Items Condensed for Busy Readers.

Mrs. E. C. Niver and Mrs. A. W. Day, members of the local juvenile court committee, to attend the annual meeting of the county juvenile court committee. Mrs. J. K. Tener is still chairman of the local committee.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Ludwig, Wednesday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Nellie E. Hastinger. It was well attended by a large number of friends of the young lady, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. The decorations were blue and white.

HARRISBURG PROUD OF GOVERNOR'S WIFE

Mrs. J. K. Tener Wins High Regard of Capitol City Residents By Attractive Personality

The Harrisburg Telegraph of recent date prints the following complimentary notice of Mrs. John K. Tener, wife of the new Governor:

"Harrisburg is beginning to feel itself particularly fortunate in having for mistress of the Executive Mansion a woman whose natural talents as a hostess have been burnished in that rare finishing school at Washington.

"The wife of a statesman or diplomat has very important duties to perform. Many a man has been hampered in his career by a helpmeet who didn't know how to help or who was lacking in the proper tact. The social duties of a Governor are almost as onerous as his political duties, and a failure in the first may have as serious consequences as a failure in the second.

"Mrs. Tener has won all hearts by her easy dignity, her affability, her perfect poise and her quick discernment of the social niceties, which are as sacred in their way as the laws of the Commonwealth or the creed of a church.

"'To make my part of the administration the very best I can,' she said on the first day of her residence in the Mansion, 'and to uphold my husband in his part of it, is the only ambition I have as wife of the Governor of Pennsylvania.'

"Ambitious women are likely to get on our nerves. Sweet, winsome, tactful, hospitable, wholesome, natural women are a comfort and a blessing wherever they may be placed, whether it be in the quiet home of the banker or in the spotlight of the Executive Mansion.

"Mrs Tener, is indeed, making her part of the administration notably wise and efficient."

A Surprised Landlord.

The very young traveling salesman was registering at the village hotel.

"I want a room with running water in it," he remarked.

"Runnin' water?" cackled the landlord. "What do you want to do, mister—practice indoor trout fishin'?"—Argonaut.

The Getaway Fellows.

"What is this 'wanderlust' you read of so often as compelling people to leave home?"

"I don't know," replied Mr. Cumrox; "but, judging from my observation of people who have it, 'wanderlust' is German for 'creditors.'"—Washington Star.

ORIGIN OF Pinkham's Blood Purifier

Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., succeeded in producing, from the roots and herbs of the fields, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful medicine for women's ailments the world has ever known. After she had put this on the market, women began to write her about their health, because they felt a natural delicacy about consulting any man physician regarding these ailments for which the Vegetable Compound is intended.

She soon found that her correspondents often had complications caused by impure, impoverished blood, and she recognized the necessity of having a reliable blood purifier which she could recommend with confidence as

The Best Spring Medicine

Then, as now, there were many blood purifiers and spring medicines on the market, and after looking into them, she found nothing so good as the old home medicine made from roots and herbs, which she had been accustomed to use in her own family, so she had this made up on a large scale, and furnished it to the stores. It has been very little advertised, but has attained a large sale solely on its merits, and is really a wonderful blood purifier and spring medicine.

It is a good, old-fashioned household remedy made from roots and herbs, which has been used from generation to generation for purifying the blood, removing humors and eruptions, and for that all "played out" feeling.

Lockages down stream were 665. There were 345 steamers and 1,441 coal barges and flats passed down. Up stream there were 661 lockages. Steamers locked up stream numbered 345 and boats, barges and flats were 1,426

SCRAP BOX FALLS ON YOUNG MAN

Narrow Escape for Foreman at Monessen Mill.

IS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Ralph Clegg, about 22 years old, of Belle Vernon, is recovering at the Allegheny-General hospital from injuries received at the Monessen Tin Plate mill Wednesday night.

Clegg was foreman of the shear work. He was at work invoicing and was directly under a box of scrap being moved by a crane, when the chain holding the box broke and the scrap fell. Clegg was almost completely covered by the scrap and it required some time before he could be extricated from the position by fellow workmen. It was thought that he would be horribly mangled and dead, but instead it was found that his chief injuries consisted of a broken collar bone and several cuts. It was feared that he had sustained internal injuries, and he was taken to the Allegheny-General hospital for treatment.

COMMITTES OF BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION MAKE START ON IMPORTANT WORK

Free Bridge Movement Receives Incentive at Regular Monthly Meeting Held Last Night---Committee Reports That Petitions are Drawn up Ready for Circulation Among Interested Citizens of Two Counties.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS PUBLICATION OF BOOKLET SHOWING FORTH LOCAL ADVANTAGES

Reports of three important committees and the election of officers, the introduction of an important resolution concerning health regulations and a Carnegie Library proposition furnished an interesting and busy session of the Charleroi Business Men's Association last night. Committees making reports were the committee on the matter of a proposed free bridge between Charleroi and Monessen, a publicity committee, and a committee on the proposed extension of a trolley line to Bentleyville. Dr J. W. Hunter introduced a resolution to petition Congress to establish a National Bureau of Health. Secretary M. Adams read his annual report.

Hugh E. Fergus Esq., chairman of the bridge committee, said that petitions had been prepared for circulation among residents of both Westmoreland and Washington counties. He said that it would take some money to push the project, approximately $500, judging by the amount required by the citizens of Belle Vernon in securing their free bridge. The committee was instructed to confer with the Monessen Board of Trade, and after that the proposition will in all probability again be taken up.

Reports of work done by the publicity committee were made by Jesse Johnston and E. C. Niver Recommendations were made that a four page leaflet of Charleroi showing the exceptional industrial and civic advantages be prepared together with an advertising envelope. This met with favor and the committee was instructed to go ahead with the work.

President John H. Bowers of a committee to look after the matter of getting a trolley line to Bentleyville, reported progress. A committee on a good road to Bentleyville was not ready to report.

Dr. J. W Hunter's resolution which was adopted was to ask Congress to create a National Bureau of Health as a cabinet office. Health work as carried on in Pennsylvania and other states was explained by Dr. Hunter, Dr. H. J. Repman. It was decided to send the resolution to the National Committee of 100 at Washington.

A communication was received from Mary E. Jones of Braddock relative to establishing a Carnegie library. She stated that the plan of Mr Carnegie's donations for libraries was that he would put up the building on a site to be furnished by the town. The town would have to make a 10 per cent appropriation to equip it. This matter was laid on the table.

Secretary Adams reported that there had been 35 new members received since the name of the association was changed on May 19, and that now the total membership was 93. Among the other things he mentioned in his report was the Business Men's picnic and the banquet held December 1 where work now being done for

GETTING DOWN TO WORK

(Special Correspondence)

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 6—"No recess! Stay on the job." That is the verdict of Governor Tener in regard to the proposed vacation on the part of some of the Legislators for the purpose of framing up legislation, even although not exactly expressed in those words. Consequently the Representatives will continue to saw wood. Affairs are getting down to the actual grind now, and steady work will be the order of the day, even if not much is accomplished "Uncle Banks" Holland is one of the busiest men on the job. He comes to the front with another bill that will be of benefit to Washington county, as well as to all others outside of those containing large cities. This is to permit counties to erect and maintain jointly workhouses for prisoners. The plan has been long advocated for this county.

Charlie Bentley of Monongahela, who is up on railroad matter, has introduced a bill to compel suburbanelectric lines to provide waiting stations, and to equip them with toilet rooms. This is a measure that will be appreciated by the suburbanites along the Pittsburg and Charleroi trolley line.

Representative Woodward of Allegheny has introduced a bill to increase the salary of the Governor's private secretary from $2,500 to $5,000. The latter is Walter H. Gaither, well known in Charleroi who was Governor Tener's secretary while the latter was in Congress.

Interesting Reading

In this issue of the Mail is published County Controller John H. Moffitt's first annual report. It is an important document to the taxpayers of the county, as is shown clearly and concisely just how the money was expended in providing for the public expenses of the county. While much shorter and greatly condensed, the report is more comprehensive to the average reader than the mass of figures which formerly constituted the county auditors' report. This latter was so voluminous as to be misleading.

By this report it is shown that the expenses of the county last year were $604,065.97, while the receipts were $646,510. This leaves a comfortable balance of receipts over expenditures. The county has a general cash balance, however, of $304,917.66. This is unexpended funds for the various departments, roads, bridges, etc. The statement is interesting reading, as the various items are so clearly set forth that the cost of the different department relating to the conduct of county affairs is readily understood.

Valuable Information

Word comes from Monessen that a party of interested citizens, chiefly members of the Board of Trade of the bustling stee' town across the river, proposes to visit the exhibition of the good roads train at Monongahela tomorrow at 1:15 in the afternoon. This train is well equipped for educational purposes under the auspices of the United States Department of Agriculture, the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, State College, and the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The latest and most approved methods of road making and repairing are illustrated and explained as well as simple devices for improvement of highways. This will afford a most interesting exhibit for those interested in good roads, and will give them information that will be valuable in any good roads movement that may be undertaken in this community.

Charleroi should also send a delegation to attend this exhibit. It would be in order for as many of the local Business Men's Association as is possible to arrange to visit this exhibition at either Monongahela or California. The Monessen delegation suggests that a Charleroi delegation join in the excursion. Monessen people are making a hot fight for both county and State improvement of highways in and out of their town, and the Board of Trade is taking advantage of every opportunity to get information regarding the subject. Road making is a most important economic subject, and all that can be done to promote it or arouse public interest is time and effort well spent.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Few people are aware of the resources and utility of the West Penn Electric company," said District Manager D. H. Johnson, recently. "While we of course advertise that we furnish light and power, the general impression is that dispensing light is our principal function. This is a mistake. Power is also a big asset with us. In addition to furnishing the motive power for numerous street car lines we supply many of the big manufacturers, as well as a multitude of small ones. Why, not so very long ago one of the big engines at the Pittsburg Plate Glass works broke down. To have installed another would have involved much delay and time to the plant. They came to us, and in two days we had a large motor in and running, and the plant is now using the motor in the place of the engine. You'd be surprised at the general use of small motors for running light machinery. These are increasing right along.

John B. Schafer, the newly elected president of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, told a good story last night to illustrate the fate of the shirker, when called upon for a speech, after he had been declared elected.

The story was a fable of a farmer who used a mule and a cow harnessed together in ploughing his fields. After the first day's work the cow simulated sickness to avoid the yoke. The consequence was that the mule did the work alone, and the cow would ask her companion how he got along, and gloat over the deception. One evening the mule in reply to the usual question stated that he had been called upon to do some extra work.

"What was that" asked the cow.

"Oh," replied the mule, "after the ploughing was done the master drove me down to the slaughter house."

Mr. Schafer used this story to illustrate a point in making an appeal for the co operation of the members of the association during the coming year in working for advancing the interests of Charleroi.

H. A. Kauffie, the efficient Charleroi Western Union telegraph operator, is a placid, mild mannered man, but he sometimes cracks a joke when it is least expected. The big electric clock in the local telegraph office, which is regulated every day at noon from Washington, D.C., is the official regulator for all the watches and clocks in the community, and in addition to obligingly giving the time over the 'phone to numerous calls every day Mr. Kauffie receives dozens of people who drop into the office to set their watches to see what time it is. The other day a young lady dropped into the office and studied the clock intently.

"The clock isn't going," said Mr. Kauffie.

"Not going?" repeated the young lady, "it seems to be."

"No, the clock isn't going; it's just hanging on the wall."

Incidentally it might be stated that every clock in Western Union offices is regulated and accurately set at noon every day from the Master Clock of the company at Washington, D C. If you should happen to be in the local Western Union telegraph office at about noon, at exactly two minutes to 12 you will hear some long drawn out ticks over the wire, with some pauses between. Then, after an interval, there will be a final tick, and it is noon. If the clock is not exactly on the second, it is regulated to the correct time, and does business for another 24 hours.

The local clock, which is run by electricity, can also be connected with other clocks of a similar nature about town, and will regulate them automatically. Jewelers get this service for which they have to pay a monthly rate to the Western Union company. That's what regulates the time wherever the big telegraph company has service, and for which every wire is cleared at noon each day.

AN INTERESTING DEMONSTRATION

The Mann Street And Station Indicator Attracting Numerous People

For several weeks a very interesting demonstration has been going on in the offices, second floor of the Charleroi Mail building. The demonstration is of a machine that is installed in street cars and automatically announces the streets and stations in print. When the car leaves one stop the machine will indicate the next. The Indicator on exhibition here is installed in a minature car, which moves back and forth and operates under actual commercial conditions. When the car has reached the end of the run an automatic switch reverses the direction of the tape upon which the names of the streets appear.

The passengers on the street car in the future need have no nervous spasms for fear of being carried past their destination and having to walk back several blocks. Every person who has been in strange cities knows well the anxiety of depending upon a conductor to call out the names of the stops along the route. With the Mann Street Indicator all this trouble is past, and you can ride without any tremors, for the Indicator is placed in full view of every person in the car.

The representatives of the Mann Indicator company have been working away quietly for some time and have interested many of the business and professional men of Charleroi. They state that the Indicator is in operation on the Stark Electric system at Alliance, Ohio, where the company's factory is located. They also state that within a short time thousands of the machines will be in operation all over the country, and without a doubt this is true, for the Mann Indicator company does not charge the street car companies one cent; the machines are installed free.

The men who have charge here are R. M. Smith and P. M. Asmus who extend a cordial invitation to the public to call and see this wonderful invention.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of the great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy. They act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Carroll Drug Store, 623 Fallowfield avenue.

REV. J. W. HEAZELTON PREACHES SOUND LOGIC

Rev. J. W. Heazleton of Belle Vernon preached in the M. E. church last night to a splendid audience. He took for his text John 3:16. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believe in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

"This" the speaker said "was an inexhaustible text. The costliest thing in the world is sin. God was not a God of wrath but of love. His love was not temporary but eternal. Love was deep seated in the very nature of the Divine Being. However God's love was not a mere emotion, an effieminate thing. His love and his justice were in perfect harmony. This was seen in the gift of His son as the propitiation for our sins."

The service this evening will be held in the large auditorium and the pastor will speak on "Lost Boys," the sermon being especially for young people.

On Sunday there will be a special service for men at 3 o'clock when the pastor will speak on "The best business in the World." Business men are especially welcome to this service.

CAIRNES ANNOUNCS FOR COMMISSIONER

Burgess of Roscoe Out for County Office at Coming Election

John J. Cairns, the present burgess of Roscoe, has entered the race on the Republican ticket for nomination for county commissioner at the June primary. So many friends and staunch supporters have urged him to take this step, that after thinking the matter over for some time, he finally announced his intention to become a candidate.

Mr Cairnes is well qualified for the position, although never having come out for a county office before. He has held several offices in the borough of Roscoe Being a mine foreman in the employ of the Vesta Coal company at California he has been an active factor in the mining industry for a number of years. He is alert to the interests of the coal miners, and has taken an active part in mining institutes and other progressive steps for the betterment of their condition and for their safety in the mines. He possesses the ability for cool judgement and keen insight He is a ready talker, and is thorough conversant with conditions as they exist in this county. In the commissioners office there is no doubt but that he would exercise the same careful tactics that has made him successful in his own line of business

John J. Cairns has the confidence of a host of people in the valley, and would undoubtedly command their support. Not only this, but he is well and favorably known throughout the county, and while he realizes that he is entering a contest which will require hard work to win, he fully expects to overcome the heavy odds by clean methods and honest dealing with all whom he may come in contact.

State of Pennsylvania,
County of Washington.

Personally appeared, John H. Moffitt, Controller of Washington County, State of Pennsylvania, who being duly sworn according to law, deposed and said that the above statement submitted herewith is correct and true and is a true transcript of the books and records kept in the County Controller's office.

JOHN H. MOFFITT,
County Controller.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 30th day of Jan. A. D. 1911.

DAVID L. WILLIAMS,
Clerk of Courts.

A Sea's Curious Origin.

The discovery of the famous Woodhall spa in Lincolnshire was very curious. Just about a hundred years ago a shaft was sunk in search of coal, but the effort had to be abandoned owing to a rush of water. In time the water found its way into a small brook, and in due course the inhabitants began to speak of the curative powers of the stream. Science investigated the mystery and discovered that the water in the coalless shaft was richly impregnated with various salts and bromine and iodine. Geologists expressed the interesting opinion that ages ago the place was the sandy bed of a shallow lagoon or bay of a tropical sea where seaweeds of giant growth abounded. A mighty convulsion of nature lowered the sea bed, a great river dowed over the place, and in time its debris was formed into a mass of spongy rock or sandstone. Forcing itself through this mass at great pressure some 600 feet below the ground, the water now extracts the constituents of the original seaweed.—London Family Herald.

The Toad's Tongue.

The skillful manner in which a toad used its wonderfully formed tongue entitled it to be ranked as an expert. For one thing, it showed wonderful skill in judging distances. The tongue was never darted out until the insect came within a certain range. The accuracy of the creature's aim was another matter for surprise. The insects were generally in motion when the tongue was darted out against them, but the arrow never failed to hit. The rapidity with which the tongue was shot forth excited much wonder. The operation is a complex one. The tongue is doubled or folded up when in the mouth. Therefore a twofold action is required, an uncoiling of the weapon and then the darting of it forth. The withdrawing of the tongue with the captured insect on the tip was not less remarkable. Notwithstanding the rapid motion, the fineness of the tongue tip and the struggles of the prey the victim was never dropped.—Exchange.

HARRISBURG PROUD OF GOVERNOR'S WIFE

Mrs. J. K. Tener Wins High Regard of Capitol City Residents By Attractive Personality

The Harrisburg Telegraph of recent date prints the following complimentary notice of Mrs. John K. Tener, wife of the new Governor:

"Harrisburg is beginning to feel itself particularly fortunate in having for mistress of the Executive Mansion a woman whose natural talents as a hostess have been burnished in that rare finishing school at Washington.

"The wife of a statesman or diplomat has very important duties to perform. Many a man has been hampered in his career by a helpmeet who didn't know how to help or who was lacking in the proper tact. The social duties of a Governor are almost as onerous as his political duties, and a failure in the first may have as serious consequences as a failure in the second.

"Mrs. Tener has won all hearts by her easy dignity, her affability, her perfect poise and her quick discernment of the social niceties, which are as sacred in their way as the laws of the Commonwealth or the creed of a church.

"'To make my part of the administration the very best I can,' she said on the first day of her residence in the Mansion, "'and to uphold my husband in his part of it, is the only ambition I have as wife of the Governor of Pennsylvania.'

"'Ambitious women are likely to get on our nerves. Sweet, winsome, tactful, hospitable, wholesome, natural women are a comfort and a blessing wherever they may be placed, whether it be in the quiet home of the banker or in the spotlight of the Executive Mansion.

"'Mrs Tener, is indeed, making her part of the administration notably wise and efficient.'"

A Surprised Landlord.

The very young traveling salesman was registering at the village hotel.

"I want a room with running water in it," he remarked.

"Runnin' water?" cackled the landlord. "What do you want to do, mister—practice indoor trout fishin'?"—Argonaut.

The Getaway Fellows.

"What is this 'wanderlust' you read of so often as compelling people to leave home?"

"I don't know," replied Mr. Cumrox; "but, judging from my observation of people who have it, 'wanderlust' is German for 'creditors.'"—Washington Star.

ORIGIN OF
Pinkham's Blood Purifier

Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., succeeded in producing, from the roots and herbs of the fields, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful medicine for women's ailments the world has ever known. After she had put this on the market, women began to write her about their health, because they felt a natural delicacy about consulting any man physician regarding these ailments for which the Vegetable Compound is intended.

She soon found that her correspondents often had complications caused by impure, impoverished blood, and she recognized the necessity of having a reliable blood purifier which she could recommend with confidence as

The Best Spring Medicine

Then, as now, there were many blood purifiers and spring medicines on the market, and after looking into them, she found nothing so good as the old home medicine made from roots and herbs, which she had been accustomed to use in her own family, so she had this made up on a large scale, and furnished it to the stores. It has been very little advertised, but has attained a large sale solely on its merits, and is really a wonderful blood purifier and spring medicine.

It is a good, old-fashioned household remedy made from roots and herbs, which has been used from generation to generation for purifying the blood, removing humors and eruptions, and for that all "played out" feeling.
